BEFORE YOU BEGIN

CONGRATULATIONS ON LEARNING THE TRUE SECRET TO MANIFESTING MONEY.

Money is the hardest thing for most people to manifest – by far!

Consistent wealth is the most difficult thing for 95% of the entire globe to manifest.

If you are here, it is because you are concerned with one thing and one thing only – getting rich and staying rich.

If this is not your concern, maybe you are in the wrong place.

This ebooklet is for the people who know there is something more waiting out there for them.

The people who know that they should be further along financially but something they can't quite put their finger on, seems to be holding them back.

Some people who come here almost feel cursed – like there is a hidden force or hidden energy that is keeping them from reaching their full potential of the life they want.

For most of these people, this is their last and only chance to turn it all around permanently.

With so much economic uncertainty, it's more important than ever for people to have access.

The Council of the Book of Millionaires mission is to make the information available to anyone who seeks it-100% FREE.

THE BOOK OF MILLIONAIRES

WHAT IS THE BOOK OF MILLIONAIRES?

The Book of Millionaires is many things besides just a book.

It is a Mastermind Group, a Society, a Community, a Lifestyle, and a Frequency transformer.

The Book of Millionaires is a ledger in which all members past, and present are listed. Adding your name to the Book of Millionaires serves 2 purposes

1. Adding your name to the Book of Millionaires serves as an anchor. As law of attraction students, we are taught to visualize and feel as if we are already (that thing) we want. But actually BEING that thing is 100x more effective.

So being IN the Book of Millionaires along with the most successful people in the world, adds a dynamic to your affirmations and reality that is not able to be achieved otherwise.

The second thing is 'energy and frequency'.

We all have heard that association is one of the key factors to success. That's the principle behind mentors and coaches- the connection.

That is why the saying "if you are associated with 4 poor friends, you will be number 5.

Equally, if you are associated with 5 rich friends, you will be number 5.

This is because you absorb the frequency of the groups you are in .

The Book of Millionaires, merely by association, puts you on the same frequency with the people listed. This in return allows you to own and harness the frequency of success. It's exactly like being a member of a luxury club. All the members enjoy special benefits and treatment because they are officially in the club.

This is how the Book of Millionaires works, if you are listed in the Book, along with the wealthiest people who have ever lived, and you are officially in the same group as them, the frequency alone will attract the same success they are experiencing.

FREQUENCY?

The reason most people can't 'attract' what they want or (permanently 'attract' what they want) is because of Frequency.

Nobody actually attracts what they 'want'.

People attract from the frequency they are in.

That's it!

If you stopped reading now, you would have more insight than 75% of the people studying the law of attraction.

You attract what you are, what YOUR Frequency is.

If you "Are" a person that has a frequency of lack, or fear of something bad, or low money, then no matter what you try to attract, you will get what comes along with this frequency.

People will say "hey, I didn't attract the car accident, or I didn't attract bad co-workers, or I didn't attract nasty bill collectors. No, you didn't specifically think of that, but it doesn't matter.

All that matters is what frequency are you on, what is your dominant frequency?

02

WHAT IS FREQUENCY?

To explain Frequency, we will use the famous analogy of a radio.

When you listen to the radio in your car, each station is on its own frequency.

There's a rock and roll station, a country music station, a jazz station, a hip hop station, etc.,

These stations all exist on their own specific frequency.

When you tune into that frequency, you get ALL of the things associated with that station.

You may have tuned into the hip hop station to only hear an Eminem song, but you are also going to get Snoop dogg, you are going to get the hip hop radio host, you are going to get the commercials that appeal to that audience, you are going to get the sounds, the political messages.

Everything that goes with that particular frequency, you are going to get.

And simply put, that is how the law of attraction works.

You get it all. Whoever YOU are, and the frequency YOU are on, will attract everything along with that frequency into your life.

So where does the Book of Millionaires come in?
The Book of Millionaires exists as an anchor for a specific frequency.

The Frequency of Wealth and abundance.

It goes beyond just an affirmations,
it's something that exists in the physical world,
in cyberspace and in your thoughts.

It's an identity, it's something that you belong to, something you are apart of.

It's like being in the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, once you are in, you are in for life and that is your identity.

There are many things that come with being in the hall of fame, and if you are in it, you get it all.

The Book of Millionaires is the same thing.

Every millionaire, past, present and future is listed in the Book.

Many parents will even enter their children in the Book of Millionaires at birth, and put them on a frequency that gives them the ultimate guidance and the ultimate advantage in life.

If your goal is to be wealthy and abundant, then the Book of Millionaires is like setting your goal in the universal GPS.

It maps your destiny and it's that simple.

Why is frequency so important?

When attempting to become a master creator, frequency is what you want to strive for, not necessarily manifestation.

Why?

Because frequency is the cheat code to manifestation.

When you are on the right frequency, then you manifest without effort.

This is 100% True.

Think of rich people, they get gifts from others that are far more extravagant than what normal people get.

I know a guy, who for his birthday got a motorcycle, a Rolex watch and several other high end gifts that normal people have to visualize and work for.

So why did this guy attract it without even trying? Because he is on the 'frequency' of wealth and abundance.

And as we talked about, you get everything that comes along with that frequency, not just the things you actively work to create.

So frequency is the cheat code for having everything you want on autopilot, and the Book of Millionaires puts everyone listed on that same frequency simply by association.

It's all very, very simple.

and this is something the elite have used for years with fraternities, with member's clubs, etc, and the Book of Millionaires has opened this up for a limited time anyone who finds it. LIFETIME memberships for every member.

Register now before it is closed forever.

So we are going to start this process of attracting abundance, with getting clear on the definition. Your definition of abundance.

So let's start off by taking a moment and thinking about what our definition, personally of abundance is.

Dr. Joe Dispenza said:

"I want you to know that my definition over many years has changed dramatically and even to this day, it continues to change.

So I used to have a definition that abundance was to do whatever I want whenever I want, with whoever I want, as many times as I want.

It just meant an absolute state of freedom without any concerns."

03

Some people say, that abundance to them is having everything they need and plus some more... Meaning they have more than they need.

So an abundance is more than you need. Some people say that all their needs are met, which is a solid form of abundance that the universe provides. Then, some people have this idea that abundance has something to do with having or getting things

Now, I don't have a problem with any of those things, but I'm going to ask each person to come up with a working definition of abundance, really take the time to think about it and write it out.

Once you know what your definition of abundance is, it makes sense that you can get it. If you don't have a clear definition of abundance, then you're not going to get clear outcomes or solid outcomes.

So first step is to get clear on your definition of abundance.

04

Perception.

It is of the utmost importance for you to begin to change your perception of the world.

And this is SO important because most people's beliefs and perceptions are based on past experiences.

So you have a series of failures.

You have a series of incidents or experiences in your life (about money, about relationships, about public speaking, about how your body looks, etc), that have you draw conclusions about these things.

This can cause you to feel lack, and then you see people who have it, and then you judge them, and the more you judge them, the more you separate yourself from having what YOU want.

But I'm going to tell you, that if you change the way you look at things, I swear to you, things will change.

So let's talk about this because people think that when they have something, or attain something only then are they abundant.

That's actually backwards thinking.

The world is an Abundant,
Very Friendly,
Very Providing,
Very fruitful Place.

And if you can change your perception from lack... thinking that you're separate from having what you want... that everything is already here- all you have to do is walk into it or step into it.

By changing your perception about or of the world, or your perception about abundance or love or health or any of these areas of life, you should start to see things change.

*Because our realities are built on our beliefs and our perceptions.

So think about this: Do you think that when you have something, then you're abundant?

That means if you don't have something by very definition that you are NOT ABUNDANT.

But that's not the definition of abundance.

Abundance is: You already have that state of being within you.

Now the overlooked secret

If you can define your state of being on a moment to moment basis,

You will begin to understand that:

You don't Create Abundance,

You Generate Abundance!

Most people generate lack.

Most people generate separation.

Most people generate victimization.

Most people generate fear, or resistance or judgment, that is what they are generating, majority of the time.

But if you begin to realize that in order for you to create wealth or abundance or anything else you desire, that you have to "generate" it, you may change the way you think and feel.

And if you keep thinking certain thoughts and you keep feeling certain emotions...

The way you think and the way you feel, will become who you are.

And as the Great Bob Proctor put it " you don't attract what you want, you attract what you are"

05

How to Generate VS Create

Generation is an ongoing thing. It's a constant

Think of when you are boiling water on a stove. When you first begin, the water is not doing anything. The fire is going and it may take several moments to get the water to boil.

If you were to give up or start looking for the boil in the first few moments, that would look pretty silly because you understand this is not instantaneous and you would not see anything.

But you understand how important it is to continually GENERATE that heat to reach the manifestation of boiling water.

Now once the water starts boiling, do you turn the fire off? NO.

This would stop the manifestation of boiling water. This is exactly what most people do.

They work hard at visualizing, at doing rituals, at meditation, etc.

Then after a while they see some results, but that is when they stop "Generating".

If you turn the fire off, then the water will still be at a boil for a moment.

Then even after the boil, the water will be very hot, even too hot to touch.

Then the water become less hot, warm, and eventually go cold.

This is because you stopped 'GENERATING' the heat. And even though it stayed hot for a while, it will eventually go away.

This is where so many students fail.

Abundance is something you generate, not just create.

And FREQUENCY is the prime generator of wealth and abundance.

Your frequency is created by many things but Thoughts + Feelings is where it begins.

Now, Dr. Joe Dispenza has always said that thoughts are the electrical charge, and feelings are the magnetic charge. And that combination of thinking and feeling, your state of being is producing a forecast.

You are broadcasting information into the quantum field, so if a person spends ten minutes of their day generating abundance, and then they spend the remainder of the day feeling lack, or feeling like a victim because of circumstance, or their race, or their gender, and feeling separate from what they want, then their vibration and frequency isn't in alignment with wealth, or abundance or anything else they want.

And there has to be a vibrational match between the energy of abundance and that particular reality that you're going to walk into.

So when we are living in a state of fear,
or separation,
or judgment,
or resistance,
or victimization,
or lack, or whatever,
we CAN still create, BUT, we can only create in VERY LIMITED ways.

We push, we wish, we try, we force, we try to control outcomes in our life, because that's the only way we think we can get what we want.

Since we are looking for it to come in a specific way, we are defining reality with our senses.

If we're defining reality with our senses, our view of the world is only based on our past, and present reality.
And when we do this, nothing can change because you can only get what you've always gotten.

In other words, when people practice and finally move into a state where they can generate abundance, most times they then start looking to see if their bank account has changed.

They start looking for things in the physical to help keep them there because the majority of the time, their perception moves back into a state of lack or a state of resistance.

They are no longer generating from the inside, they need something on the outside to keep them going and this is where it goes wrong.

But if you are able to change your energy, you are moving into a vibrational state that's in alignment with the FUTURE, now you are moving from the sensory based reality, where you have to go through three dimensions to get what you want, dragging your body around and working for a living and saving money etc, which is what most people do in their normal life.

But you move to a quantum based reality, which is based on NON-sense, which means not using your senses to define reality.

You're using your energy and your vibration, and your state of being from a moment to moment basis to call reality to you, and to BRING reality to you.

So when you're experiencing those states of lack, it simply means that you are not in that new state of being.

You are actually in the old state of being, which is the same old, typical idealism that you are 'in lack' or you're separate from what you want.

When people start looking for the things they want in their life, they start trying to predict when it's going to happen, and once they start looking and realize that they don't have it, of course they go back to their old state.

So anytime you feel lack just remember, you are back in the old state and correct it immediately.

The fix is to keep changing your energy.

Practice changing your energy.

You do it initially with your meditation.

You move into a new state of being (initially with your eyes closed).

The next step is in your waking day, practice doing it with your eyes open.

NOTE: Meditations are available in the Book of Millionaires Member's Area

So, the question is, what energy are you living your life with?

Are you living your life in a daily state of passion?

Are you living your life in daily a state of bliss?

Are you living in a daily state of inspiration?

Are you living in a daily state of trust or invincibility?

Now if you're in these elevated states, it means you're energy is at a faster vibration.

And the faster the vibration, the higher the energy, the more you are a magnet to bringing that evidence in to your life.

So in these elevated states, when you are passionate and you're blissful and you're inspired, the last thing you should be doing is analyzing your world.

Because the moment you start analyzing your life from these elevated states... You lose it.

So the take away from this should be to define your state of being.

Practice your state of being.

Moving to the state of being where you are generating abundance, then pay attention and catch yourself when you fall from grace, when you feel victimized, when you feel lack, when you feel you are separate from what you want.

You don't have to stay in these lower vibrations. Become conscious and realize that when you're in those negative states, you have very limited ways to get things to happen in your life.

When you are like this you go from a flowing energy state to a solid matter state. You are now 'matter' trying to change 'matter' and that is almost impossible.

You want to be 'energy' and change 'energy', which can be done with ease.

Now, once you are able to lock into that higher state and it is becoming familiar to you, practice with your eyes open,.

Practice moving into that state of being when you're in your car, when you're taking a shower, when you're taking bath, when you're sitting down for a minute or standing in line.

Practice moving into that state of being on a moment to moment basis.

And by doing that, you are beginning to create affluence (meaning states of abundance), Which means you are not GOING anywhere to get what you want.

You are BRINGING that experience to you.

Now, when people practice abundance, and they move into that state of being, they tend to lose the present moment quite a bit.

But it's going to require you staying present.

When you're present in your creative process, you are connected to something greater.

But, when you are impatient, when you are frustrated, when you are controlling, when you are trying to make things happen (your way), you are signaling to the universe that "it's not happening fast enough, or not happening at all". The universe now has no choice to send the "it's not happening" back to you. You planted the seed, and watered the seed, but then dug it up from the soil because you didn't see a plant.

and you are trying to overlay or create some next movement immediately, to take away the feeling of lack, or the feeling of impatience, or the feeling of frustration.

Now why is this relevant?

Because all potentials in the quantum field exists in the present moment and because the brain is an anticipation machine, most people will start to think “okay, well, now I generated a state of abundance, so where is it?”

And they start getting impatient.

And then when it doesn't happen, they start getting frustrated, and when they get frustrated, they start accusing and blaming other people, blaming your husband or wife for not doing this or that to help you, or blaming your blaming your children for not visiting more, or blaming your neighbor's dog for always barking, or blaming the society for being racist, or whatever it is, and it's never THEIR fault or responsibility.

It's always somebody else outside of them, and they will never get over the hump.

So practice staying present in your day.
And if you're moving into a state of abundance, you have to be present.
If you notice, you start doing that, stop for a moment and reconnect again.

So what are the emotions that disconnect us?
All of the emotions that are derived from the hormones of stress.

And when we are living in stress, we are living as materialists, and we will go back to defining reality with our senses.
And when we do that, we get in trouble because we only have limited resources to get what we want.

So people compete, they manipulate, they cheat, they lie, they do whatever they can to get what they want, because they feel disconnected from the quantum field.

So in your waking day, in order for you to begin to create effects in your life, you have to keep the energy vibration of abundance at a constant.

And the more you keep it as a constant, the more you've made the connection in your mind.

By doing that, you'll begin to see some things moving and changing... that's the sign there's a vibrational match between you and where you're going.

So if you can notice the moments, and the thoughts that limit your vibration, you can begin to make significant changes.

The problems occur when people say "well, it's not there yet, I don't see it."

The moment they don't see it, they feel lack. When they feel lack, they get discouraged, and then they don't believe it.

Or sometimes things don't go exactly how they want, and people give up, or they draw conclusions or they say it isn't working.

They have expectations that are unfulfilled because they wanted it to work out a certain way and it doesn't, so they start comparing themselves to others, or they start judging others who have what they want, and those states of judgment stop the flow.

So the point is... allow, allow, allow.

Start to flow down the river, and if you can flow, and you can trust, and you can stay loose and stay free, you are going to keep your energy moving.

It's when you start judging and resisting and when you start comparing and analyzing that you block the flow.

The universe loves to surprise you. It really does get it's kicks by bringing things to you in ways you don't expect.

Allow yourself moments where you just allow things to unfold.

It may not be the way you expect, but that just means that you are in the 'unknown', the 'unfamiliar' and that's a good thing because the unfamiliar is where the magic happens.
